

Rebecca arrives:

Sid,

Do you know from the first time we met you, we fell in love with you. Of all our “uncles” (and yes, we consider you our uncle) we knew you to be a kind, caring, considerate person. No wonder my aunt Eve fell in love with you and you certainly kept her in line.

We are so sorry we can't be there with you to celebrate your birthday but we will be thinking of you and singing Siman Tov and Mazal Tov.

Your lifelong passionate advocacy of Israel is well known. You are, indeed, a man of valor, and it has been our pleasure and delight to have shared your thoughts, comments, and humor with the many people in your life.

Sid, we salute you !!!!

And Eve:

Take Me Out to the Ball Game

What a fabulous time we had at the Marlins ballgame. We went to a Marlins game last year. Although Sid did not need a wheelchair, the ball park office decided that since he was 99 years old that he should be escorted into the game via a wheel chair. Were we lucky!!! We were taken through the team entrance, past the indoor team area where they practice pitching and hitting. We saw the dugout with the players sitting there. The best part of all was being able to watch several ballgames over the years with Sid and being able to enjoy his enthusiasm and knowledge of the game. We can't think of anyone we would rather go to a ballgame with.

Murray never knew any of his grandparents and to have him see the enjoyment that Sid gives to everyone around him including our grandchildren is a treat!!!! It allows Murray to have an understanding of what he missed growing up.

All our love to Sid on his 100th birthday,

Murray and Irene
